

WHAT GOES AROUND COMES AROUND

I can't believe the time is here

After everything, I finally get to share this with you. I'm grateful for not only your support, but for loving for my art.

Without you, I wouldn't be who I am. May you enjoy this as much as I enjoyed making it.

I create art to connect with people, because as we experience life, we tend to spiral down paths that we feel like no ones ever walked down before. And that can be lonely. And sometimes we just need to hear that someone else went through the same shit you went through, to know that things are going to be alright.

A lot of the time, what makes us unique is our reaction to our experiences - not the experience itself. And there should be liberation in knowing that we all get to the same places in different ways.

*The cycle will complete itself
Have the best time in it
Life is a marathon and sprint*

So only wish good for people, because those who did you wrong will pay for the consequences at some point, and it's not up to us on when that'll be.

What Goes Around.

Love,
6
